

Build A Frame Drum By Hand...

The Heartbeat of Mother Earth

Drum Making Workshop

A drum making workshop filled with ritual, rhythm and remembering...

This workshop goes beyond handcrafting to include elements of a native ceremony with the guidance of expert drum maker Ruth Ann Syrell-Rock.

You don't merely purchase the drum, you take part in the creation of the finished product. Each participant will leave the class with a finished "Indigenous Style" frame hand drum.

Classes include:

- A frame drum making kit complete with, cut and punched hide, a finished hoop, and pre cut lacing to work with.
- Choice of skin (Deer, Horse or Elk)
- Weaving your own prayers or intentions into the drum.
- Potluck style lunch.

For upcoming classes, pricing, information and registration details please see our website at: www.HarmonyHouseMoonlodge.com

We can also come to your home or business with a minimum of 4 persons per class.

Contact Ruth Ann Today at 310.815.1911 info@HarmonyHouseMoonlodge.com

"The beat of the drum is the heartbeat of Mother Earth. It reconnects us to one another and life itself."